Ch-2- Sectors of the Indian Economy

- On basis of human activities
  - Economic activities
    - Primary Sector
    - Secondary Sector
    - Tertiary Sector
  - Non-Economic activities
- On basis of ownership
  - Public Sector
  - Private Sector
- On basis of working conditions
  - Organized Sector
  - Non-Organised Sector

Exercises

Short Answer Questions

Q6 Do you think the classification of economic activities into primary, secondary and tertiary is useful? Explain.

Ans Classification helps analyse economic contribution, employment patterns and planning developement policies for each sectors efficiently and accurately in the economy.

Q9 How is the tertiary sector different from other sectors? Illustrate with a few examples.

Ans Tertiary sector provides services like banking and transport, unlike others dealing with goods and materials.

Q11 Distinguish between open unemployment and disguised unemployment.

Ans Open unemployment means joblessness. Disguised unemployment occurs when more people are employed than needed.

Q12 'Tertiary sector is not playing any significant role in the developement of Indian Economy' Do you agree?

Ans Tertiary sector boosts GDP and supports developement through services like education, transport, health and IT.

Q13 Service sector in India employs two different kinds of people who are they?

Ans Service sector employs both skilled proffesionals and unskilled workers offering various useful services to people.

Q15 How are the activities in the economy classified on the bases of employment conditions?

Ans Jobs are either in organized (secure) or unorganized (insecure) sectors, based on work conditions.

Q16 Compare the employment conditions prevailing in the organized and unorganized sectors.

Ans Organized sector offers secure jobs and benefits. Unorganized sector lacks stability, poor wages, and legal protection.

Q17 Explain the objective of implementing the NREGA 2005.

Ans NREGA guarantees 100 days of rural employement yearly through unskilled public work for adults.

Q18 Using examples from your area compare and contrast that activities and functions of private and public sectors.

Ans Public sector ensuring welfare services. Private sector focuses on profit making through business activities.

Long Answer Questions

Q10 What do you understand by disguised unemployment? Explain with an example each from urban and rural areas.

Ans → Disguised unemployment means more people are working than actually required.
→ Their removal doesn't affect total output.
→ In rural areas, they happens often in agriculture.
→ In urban areas, people assist in shops unnecessarily.
→ It hides real unemployment under existing jobs.

Q14 Workers are exploited in unorganized sector. Do you agree? Give reasons.

Ans → Yes, workers often lack formal job contracts.
→ They get low wages and no fixed timings.
→ No benefits like health insurance or paid leave.
→ Employees can remove them without notice.
→ It creates insecurity and poor living conditions.

Q20 Give a few examples of public sector activities and explain why the government has taken them up.

Ans → Railways, power supply, public schools are examples
→ Government ensures basic needs reach all.
→ Private companies avoid unprofitable sectors.
→ Public sectors supports large infrastructure.
→ It maintains equality and social justice.

Q21 Explain how public sector contributes to the economic developement of a nation.

Ans → It provides essential services like transport and healthcare.

→ Offers employment to millions of people.

→ Supports industries with power and infrastructure.

→ Reduces income inequality and enjury welfare.

→ Helps build a statuse and balanced economy.

Space 27/25

Explain how infrastructure and welfare

W.S.

paste w/s

Ch-2-Worksheet

Very Short Answer Questions

Ans-1 By adding the value of final goods and services from all sectors.

Ans-2 Job security, regular wages and employee benefits like leave and pension.

Ans-3 Manufacturing, and processing activities like making goods in factories.

Short Answer Questions

Ans-1 Services like banking and IT are growing fast but small vendors and repair services grow much slower.

Ans-2 It is ~~ot~~ correct because more people are working than needed. Reducing efficiency without affecting total production.

Ans-3 Sugarcane is grown by farmers, processed in factories, and sold through markets using transport services.

Long Answer Questions

Ans-1 → Public sector is owned by government. Private sector is owned by individuals.
→ Public sector focuses on welfare. Private sector focuses on Profit.
→ Public jobs are more secure, private jobs are less secure.
→ Examples: Railway (public), Reliance (private).
→ Public gets government funds, private uses private investments.

Ans-2 → Regular salaries ensure financial stability.
→ Fixed working hours ~~offer~~ offer work-life balance.
→ Employees get medical and paid leaves.
→ Pensions ensure future security.
→ Example: government offices, registered companies like Infosis.

Ans-3 → Growing demand for education and healthcare.
→ Rise in IT and communication services.
→ Increase in trade, transport, and tourism.
→ Industrial growth needs more services.
→ Urban lifestyle boosts retail and banking.

Simran
30/7/25