IV Answer the following Long Answer:-

Q1 Bholi was believed to be a 'Dumb cow' what her into a fearless and confident girl.

Ans Bholi was considered a "Dumb cow" because she stammered while speaking and had pockmarks on her face due to an illness in childhood. Her timid nature and lack of attention from her family made her feel worthless and unwanted. She was often ignored and ridiculed, which crushed her self-esteem.

Her life changed when she was sent to school. The kind and patient teacher encouraged her to speak and learn. Gradually, Bholi gained confidence through education and realized her own worth. The supportive environment helped her overcome her fears and develop a strong personality.

When Vishambar Nath demanded dowry, Bholi boldly refused to marry him, choosing dignity over social pressure. Her courage and self-respect proved that she was no longer the timid girl everyone once pitied.
