11/5/25

Nelson Mandela: Long Walk to Freedom

Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela

I Answer the following word Meanings:

1 wrought: done, worked into shape by efforts

2 despised: hated

3 emancipation: freedom from restriction.

4 resilience: ability to deal with any hardship.

5 prejudice: bias

Sentences ?

II Reference To Context:-

1 "10th May ---------- non-racial government."

inauguration

a Who were and for what before the inauguration?

Ans The world leaders were coming to pay their respects before the inauguration.

b What happened on the day of inauguration?

Ans The ceremonies took place in the lovely sandstone amphitheatre formed by the Union Buildings in Pretoria. For decades this had been the seat of white supremacy, and ~~now~~ then it was the site of a rainbow gathering of different coolours nations for the installation of South Africa's first democratic, non-racial government.

use this space

c Find out the word from the extract which means the same as 'Commencement'.

Ans Inauguration

d Find a word from the passage which means 'a building without a roof'.

Ans amphitheatre

III Answer the following Short Answers:-

Q1 Why did such a large no. of international leaders attend the inauguration? What did it signify the triumph of?

Ans A large no. of international leaders attend the inauguration to pay their respects. It signified that 'courage was not the absence of fear, but the triumph over it'.

Q2 Would you agree that the depths of oppression create hieghts of character? How does Mandela illustrates this. Can you add your own examples to the argument.

Scanned with OKEN Scanner

Ans Yes, oppression often strengthens character. Nelson Mandela endured decades of racial discrimination and imprisonment, yet emerged as a leader who championed justice and reconciliation. Similarly, Martin Luther King Jr. fought racism with courage, and Malala Yousafzai turned adversity into advocacy for education. Hardship can forge resilience, shaping individuals into powerful agents of change.

Q3 How did Mandela's hunger for freedom change his life?

Ans Mandela's hunger for freedom transformed him from a young boy seeking personal liberty to a leader fighting for his people's rights. His desire for justice led him to challenge apartheid, endure imprisonment, and ultimately guide South Africa to democracy. His struggle shaped him into a symbol of resilience, inspiring millions worldwide.

Q4 Why was it impossible for a man of Mandela's birth and colour to fulfill his twin obligations?

Ans Mandela's twin obligations - to his family and his country - were impossible to fulfill under apartheid. As a Black South African, he faced systematic oppression that denied his rights and freedom. The unjust system forced him to prioritize the fight for equality over personal life, making his duty to his people his ultimate mission.

IV Answer the following in Long Answers

Q1 Discuss the scene of the inaugration ceremony. who took the oath in the ceremony. why is the inaugration called historic for South Afric.

Ans Nelson Mandela's inaugration ceremony took place on May 10, 1994, at the Union Buildings in Pretoria. It was a moment of immense significance, marking the end of apartheid and the beginning of a democratic South Africa. Leaders from around the world gathered to witness this historic event.

Mandela took oath as South africa's first Black president, pledging to uphold the Constitution and work for unity. Alongside him, Thabo Mbeki and F.W. de Klerk were sworn is as deputy presidents.

The inaugration was historic because it symbolized the triumph of Justice over decades of racial oppression. For the first time, South Africa embraced democracy ensuring equal rights for all citizens. Mandela's speech emphasized reconciliation, peace, and a vision for a nation free ~~form~~ from discrimination, inspiring hope for a brighter future.

Scanned with OKEN Scanner