The Thief's Story

I Answer the following Word Meanings:

1 Flattery: means excessive praise to gain favor.
sentence His flattery made her suspicious of his true intentions.

2 Startled: suddenly surprised or shocked sentence She was startled by the loud thunder.

3 queer: strange or unusual sentence His queer behavior puzzled

4 Line of work: A person's profession sentence His line of work involves designing innovative software solutions.

5 Hang around: to stay in a place sentence The kids hang around the parks after school.

6

II Reference to Context:

1 "When the train ---------- no friends"

a Why was the speaker standing alone on the platform?

ans The speaker was standing alone on the platform because the train had just left. He had no idea where to spend the night and had no friends, as he believed they were more trouble than help.

b Why did the speaker say that he had no friends?

Ans The speaker said he had no friends because he believed that friends were more trouble than help. He was used to a solitary life and preferred to rely only on himself.

c Find a word which is the antonym of 'crowded'.

Ans 'deserted' ——— ?

Write full sentence.

III Answer the following Short Answers:

Q1 In which queer way did Anil make his living?

Ans Anil made a living in an unusual way - he earned money by writing for magazines, but his income was irregular. Sometimes he borrowed money, and other times he lent it. Whenever he received a paycheck, he would spend it freely, without worrying about the future.

Q2 Why did Hari feel it was difficult to rob Anil?

Ans Hari found it difficult to rob Anil because Anil was kind simple, and trusting. He treated Hari well, gave him food, and even taught him to read and write. Hari felt guilty about stealing from someone who had shown him generosity, realizing that betraying Anil's trust would hurt him more than losing money.

Q3 How was Hari's appealing 'smile' at the end different from his similar smile in the Beggening?

Ans Hari's appealing smile at the end was different because it was genuine and full of gratitude. Earlier, his smile was deceptive, used to manipulative others. By the end, he had changed - his smile ~~reflective~~ reflected sincerity, relief, and appreciation for Anil's kindness and trust, showing his transformation from a thief to someone seeking honesty.

Q4 Does Anil ~~ne~~ realise that he has been robbed? why or why not?

Ans Yes, Anil realizes that he has been robbed. He likely notices because the money is damp from the rain. However, he does not confront Hari about it and instead behaves normally, even giving him a fifty-rupee note, showing that he values trust and kindness over material loss.

IV Answers the following in Long Answers:

Q1 Trust and Compassion can reform a person. Justify in the light of the chapter 'The thief's story'.

Ans Trust and Compassion play a crucial role in transforming Hari Singh, a young thief. When Hari meets Anil, he sees an opportunity to exploit his kindness. However, Anil treats him with generosity, teaches him to read and write, and trusts him despite knowing his dishonest nature. This trust makes Hari question his actions. When he steals Anil's money, he feels guilty, realizing that betraying Anil's

Paragraphs

Trust would mean losing the chance to change his life. His conscience leads him to return the stolen money, showing that kindness and faith can inspire change. Anil's silent acknowledgement of Hari's return further reinforces the idea that compassion can reform even the most hardened individuals. The story beautifully illustrates that genuine care and belief in someone's potential can lead them towards honesty and self-improvement. Hari's transformation proves that trust and compassion have the power to change lives.